

LIABILITY INSURANCE INFORMATION

There are certain alterations that require liability coverage. This is to protect the Cooperative from:

- Any liability of individuals that may be injured.
- Any property damage of other Members or the Cooperative.

If insurance is required, the Member shall be required to provide proof of such insurance with the Installation/Alteration Permit and updated by the Member each year thereafter, by providing proof of renewal to the Cooperative.

The liability insurance must provide coverage against:

- Bodily injury of anyone due to the alteration.
- Damage to property owned by other Members or the Cooperative, due to the alteration.
