

TAX BENEFITS

The Member may deduct from their Federal Income Taxes those portions of their total annual carrying charge that the Cooperative applies to its mortgage interest and real estate taxes. Before February first of each year, the Cooperative's accountant will furnish the Member with a form stating the current figures and formula to be used in calculating their deduction.