

MANAGEMENT

The Cooperative is managed by Legacy, LLC, a professional property management company, hired by the Cooperative to conduct the day-to-day business of the Association.

All personnel working at Highlands are employees of the management company and report to the Property Manager. The Property Manager reports to the Regional Manager, who is also an employee of the management company.